Shopping and Crafts

Large, modern shopping centres are dotted all around the island. The most well-known international brands and the most exclusive stores with all the charm and taste of the island. Enjoy your shopping in different, unique surroundings, open to the sun and sea.

The latest installations are mixed with open shopping areas where you can discover varied local and international offers. Experience the unique and exquisite local crafts, where basket weaving, gemstones, woodwork, palms or embroidery become the jewels of the place. The most famous aloe vera of the Atlantic, a Goat's Cheese with numerous international awards that is exported to the five continents, and a great many small marvels that the mixture of European, African and American cultures has weaved together over the centuries.

Lavish gastronomy

The holiday experience in Fuerteventura necessarily includes its gastronomy, which is best expressed by some of the best restaurants in the Canary Islands that are found on the island.

An excellent gastronomic offer made from traditional and fusion cooking, from a mixture of cultures and avant gardes, which are available not only in tourist areas but also rural areas, to create and experience new sensations every day through taste.

Immense beaches and remote spots

The extensive and never ending beaches of Fuerteventura have special spots waiting for you. Spaces of freedom where you can spend the day alone, with your partner or your friends. Open areas where you can relax, enjoy the sea and sun whatever the time of year, and meet people from all over the world. These LGBT beaches are distributed throughout the island and are a world reference for environmental quality and respect for freedom. Each tourist area has an outstanding LGBT beach, in the north, centre and south. You choose, to enjoy the solitude of privacy and relaxation, or choose the comfort of beaches that have all types of services. Far from the traditional concept of a LGBT beach, Fuerteventura offers unique areas for you.

Also at night time

Although Fuerteventura receives you in an encounter with relaxation and calm, you might want to go out and experience the island's nightlife. There are exclusive LGBT night entertainment areas and LGBT friendly areas. Situated in the main
